UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

FAMILY AND CONSUMER SCIENCES

With our origins dating back to 1918, the College of Family and Consumer Sciences (FACS) is committed to student success, holistic development and inclusive perspective taking. FACS develops thoughtful leaders who focus on the science of helping people live well through careers in medicine and healthcare, law and policy, fashion, nutrition, financial planning and more. In our college, students have access to a multitude of opportunities such as internships, scholarships, service learning, study aways, research and career development. We are made up of the departments of Financial Planning, Housing & Consumer Economics; Foods & Nutrition; Human Development & Family Science; and Textiles, Merchandising & Interiors. We also house the Institute on Human Development and Disability and are praised by our students for our family-like atmosphere.

96% placement rate after graduation

10 faculty-led study away trips on four continents

30+ Double Dawgs® options

$200k in scholarships given annually to undergraduate and graduate students

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING

FACS focuses on applied learning. Students can choose between internships, service learning, study aways and research. These opportunities allow our students to learn about their majors and future careers in a different context. The FACS Legislative Aide Internship Program, for example, allows students to spend a spring semester working with Georgia legislators during the Georgia General Assembly for course credit and a $4,000 stipend.

STUDENT CENTERED

We care about our students and their success. The dean, academic advisors, faculty, staff and alumni help students work toward their academic, personal and career goals.

INTERDISCIPLINARY EDUCATION

Through a variety of classes across the college and campus, FACS students are able to understand their major and intended career in an interdisciplinary and integrated context.

ACCREDITATION

FACS programs are accredited, endorsed or aligned with industry best practices such as the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences, the American Apparel and Footwear Association/YMA, the National Retail Federation, the Georgia Soft Goods Education Foundation, Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics, and the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapy.
